

Junko Kusunoki

President, Film Solutions Co., Ltd.

Profile

After working at a bank, she engaged in business operations for international co-productions, gaining experience in a wide range of overseas film financing schemes. Since 2004, she has served as the Japan representative of Film Finances, Inc., the world's leading film completion guarantee company. After her career at Nikkatsu Corporation, she became President of Film Solutions Co., Ltd. in 2020. While providing consulting services for international co-productions, she also focuses on developing the infrastructure essential for diversifying and globalizing film financing in Japan's production industry, such as offering global-standard production accounting and risk-management services, including completion guarantees.
